

A-Z training on Commercial Arbitration (ABAS)

17th -21st of October (Brussels)

After previous very successful editions and at the request of several ADR practitioners, we are happy to announce that AIA will organize a next edition of the ABAS training.

This training is strongly recommended for legal practitioners wanting to develop a career in commercial arbitration and for arbitration practitioners wanting to update their knowledge.

The ABAS faculty comprises the most experienced arbitrators of Belgium and the Netherlands so as to ensure that participants obtain a complete insight in all relevant aspects of commercial arbitration and in ongoing/recent evolutions.

Needless to say that this training offers good networking opportunities.

The next training will take place in Brussels (Avenue Louise 146), from the 17th until the 21st of October.
