

AIA Internship in Brussels

Do you have a background in international dispute resolution?
Are you available to start your internship in Brussels
next month?

If so, we have one spot available from 12 February until 31 March 2018.

Interested? Be quick to apply!

The intern's assignments include:

- doing research for the preparation of conferences, presentations and publications
- writing articles for the AIA Newsletter under supervision
- assisting with the organisation of trainings
- drafting promotional materials for seminars and conferences

Interns have access to the AIA arbitration law library and are strongly encouraged to pursue their own research project.

Required qualifications

- a student or a recent graduate with a background in international dispute resolution and/or public international law
- excellent spoken and written English

Fluency in French or Dutch will be considered as an asset.

Your application should include

- a short CV (two pages maximum)
- a cover letter focusing on the experience relevant to the internship

Applications should be sent to administration@arbitration-adr.org.

AIA Recommends to Attend

European Federation for Investment Law and Arbitration

3rd EFILA Annual Conference 2018

Join our partner, the European Federation for Investment Law and Arbitration, for its 3rd annual conference on the Parallel States' Obligations in Investor-State Arbitration. The conference will take place on the 5th of February at the University of London.

The conference will focus on:

- Non-disputing third parties and their influence on arbitration
- Investment regulation and arbitration
- Human rights, environment and arbitration
- The Proposed Investment Court System

Experience panel discussions on the above topics with speakers from every legal background such as investment, human rights, and environmental law.

The highlight of the event will be a Keynote Speech by the Honorable Charles N. Brower, Arbitrator at 20 Essex Street Chambers, on "Why the EU Investment Court System is destined to fail foreign investors and host states alike?".

The standard registration fee is € 207.95. Government officials, officials of international organizations and full-time academics, Ph.D, LLM candidates and students can obtain a reduced fee of € 103.95.

More details about the conference as well as a registration link can be found here.
