

BREAKING NEWS

On Thursday 22nd September 2011 DWFMBeckman signed a mutual framework and accord Agreement with Beijing Yingdao Law Firm located in the centre of Beijing sharing offices in the same building as the Chinese Mint.

Beijing Yingdao Law Firm has given DWFMBeckman exclusive access to the firm which provides advice and services in international commercial transactions, intellectual property to include motion pictures television and AV legal affairs, real estate, full company commercial services, financial transactions, international and local franchise and litigation and arbitration services.

Tony Mead and Peter Bridson will be attending the IPG Conference and will be happy to provide more information to IPG members who might wish to take advice from or channel business or clients through to mainland China.

