Johan Nel studied at Stellenbosch university where he obtained his BAcc Honours degree and joined PwC Namibia's Windhoek office in 2006. He qualified as a Chartered Accountant in 2009 and spent one year at Grant Thornton in the Channel Islands' Jersey office.

After spending some time in the audit environment, he ventured into tax in 2010 in the Windhoek office of PwC Namibia and furthered his studies by obtaining postgraduate diplomas in VAT and Income Tax from UNISA, along with a course in Taxpayers' rights from UNISA. Johan spent the last 14 years in the tax practice of PwC Namibia, of which he was the partner responsible for Corporate and International tax from 2015 to July 2024 and gaining valuable experience across a number of industries in Namibia ranging from retail to mining and oil and gas. Johan has significant experience across a wide range of services dealing with local and international tax structures, tax compliance, employee taxes and tax accounting services

We are wishing Johan a good start in his new position!!!!

Kind regards,

Elke
