Welcome to our May Ewire

At Silverman Sherliker we like to keep you up to date with ideas and information of interest to our clients and general network.

Our Ewires will be sent to you regularly to keep you in touch with the latest legal news.

In home news: We are delighted to congratulate longstanding client DynaRisk for winning the Digital Innovation award in BT's Securing the Nation competition. Silverman Sherliker works with, and continues to support, the UK's thriving tech industry.

And finally, we have attended the 139th Annual Conference of the International Trademark Association (INTA). Silverman Sherliker's Robert MacGinn and Nigel Parnell joined 10,000 international delegates for five days of education, strategy, and networking.

If you would like further information on any of the issues reported in this Ewire, please contact us.

We operate a responsible email policy at Silverman Sherliker LLP Solicitors, so if you do not wish to receive further copies of our Ewire, please click here to unsubscribe.

In this edition: Silverman Sherliker explains the ins and outs of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1954. Our guide will walk you through the essential steps – while avoiding common mistakes - a landlord or tenant must take to end or renew a protected lease.

Elsewhere: Common Law Marriage is the greatest myth of all. The fact of the matter is; no couple, no matter whom or how long they've been together, are legally protected under "common law". Silverman Sherliker explores the many pitfalls associated with such a set-up.

Attention Landlords and Tenants: A Guide to a Landlord and Tenant Act 1954 Section 26 Request to Renew a Commercial Lease

The Landlord and Tenant Act 1954 (the “Act”) governs the relationship between a landlord and a tenant who have entered into a business lease protected by the Act. Under the Act there are practical and legal steps a landlord and tenant must take to end or renew the protected lease. Section 26 of the Act (s26 request) sets out the procedure under which a tenant can renew its business tenancy.

The Misconception of the ‘Common Law Marriage’ – leaving unmarried couples vulnerable

It is a very common misconception that an unmarried partner has similar inheritance rights to those of a spouse/civil partner, should their partner die without leaving a Will; also known as intestate. This is not the case and the death of an unmarried partner, no matter how long the relationship was, may leave the surviving partner with nothing. Munazza Hollingsworth, a solicitor in Silverman Sherliker’s Private Client department, explains the reality.

HR, are you GDPR ready?

The General Data Protection Regulation comes into force on 25 May 2018 (GDPR). It makes significant changes in order to harmonise Data Protection laws across the EU. It is far more extensive than the current legislation, the Data Protection Act 1998 (the Act).
