Welcome to our January Ewire

We like to keep you up to date with ideas and information that will help you gain the maximum advantage from working with us.

Our Ewires will be sent to you regularly to keep you in touch with the latest legal news and we hope you will find these bulletins interesting.

In this edition, we find out about the pitfalls involved in selling a business and then examine the intellectual property issues surrounding a #JeSuisCharlie trade mark. There is a cautionary tale for employers and employees as we review lease agreements and TUPE and this month's guest article is from Vanessa Ganguin; Senior Partner at specialist immigration solicitors Ganguin Samartin, with whom Silverman Sherliker works closely. We meet our newest Senior Trade Mark Attorney, Nigel Parnell and congratulate Alban Radivojevic and Ben Thorogood on completing their training contracts.

If you would like further information on any of the issues reported here, please contact us.

We operate a responsible email policy at Silverman Sherliker LLP Solicitors, so if you do not wish to receive further copies of our Ewire, please click here to unsubscribe.

Silverman Sherliker people: Alban Radivojevic and Ben Thorogood

The partners and all members of staff are delighted to congratulate Alban Radivojevic and Ben Thorogood on completing their training contracts. Alban and Ben both started at the firm as paralegals, became trainees in 2013 and have now qualified as solicitors. Alban is in our Intellectual Property department and Ben is in Dispute Resolution. Well done to both of them!
