Welcome to our March Ewire

We like to keep you up to date with ideas and information that will help you gain the maximum advantage from working with us.

Our Ewires will be sent to you regularly to keep you in touch with the latest legal news and we hope you will find these bulletins interesting.

In this edition, we look at the concept of technology transfer which is becoming more widespread, while we examine new early conciliation rules in employment law.

We also take a closer look at Intellectual Property risk in the USA, while we consider legal issues in the business of sport and a recent Supreme Court judgment on wills.

Finally we congratulate partner Liza Zucconi being listed again in Chambers Global 2014 as a leading individual, while inviting you to attend our seminar on "Looking good on LinkedIn".

If you would like further information on any of the issues reported here, please contact us.

We operate a responsible email policy at Silverman Sherliker LLP Solicitors, so if you do not wish to receive further copies of our Ewire, please click here to unsubscribe.

Technology Transfer

Jonathan Silverman discusses how businesses can collaborate on technology and product development to bring a concept to market whilst safeguarding legal issues.
