

Welcome to our April Ewire

We like to keep you up to date with ideas and information that will help you gain maximum advantage from working with us.

Our Ewires will be sent to you regularly to keep you in touch with the latest legal news. We hope you will find these bulletins interesting.

We close with a quick tour of the type of Spanish property some of our clients are lucky enough to occupy and a reminder about the London Legal Walk on May 16.

If you would like further information on any of the issues reported in this Ewire, please contact us.

We operate a responsible email policy at Silverman Sherliker LLP Solicitors, so if you do not wish to receive further copies of our Ewire, please click here to unsubscribe.

In this edition, we consider the impact of new legislation requiring companies to hold registers identifying persons with significant control, efficient estate planning and issues employers need to consider when contacting employees absent on sick leave.

IconLogin Limited has developed the first visual password App to allow android phone users to unlock their handsets using image rather than number sequences, which is the subject of our showcase. IconLogin Limited is a valued Silverman Sherliker client and we wish them the very best of luck with their new and revolutionary product.

Through the looking glass

In the wake of the Panama Papers, the requirement for companies to hold a register of people who have significant control has come into force, explains Jonathan Silverman:
