

Welcome to our May Ewire

We like to keep you up to date with ideas and information that will help you gain maximum advantage from working with us.

Our Ewires will be sent to you regularly to keep you in touch with the latest legal news. We hope you will find these bulletins interesting.

We also summarise new gender pay gap reporting requirements that are expected to come into force in October.

We close with coverage of a recent networking event and our efforts to help charities we support.

If you would like further information on any of the issues reported in this Ewire, please contact us.

We operate a responsible email policy at Silverman Sherliker LLP Solicitors, so if you do not wish to receive further copies of our Ewire, please click here to unsubscribe.

In this edition, we consider arbitration as a form of dispute resolution and offer advice on how to use it effectively.

The second half of the Ewire tackles the potential effect of Brexit on professional EU footballers wishing to work in the UK, after kicking off the sports theme with an article on World Intellectual Property Day, which hosted Formula 1 guest speakers on IP in the Fast Lane.

MIND THE GENDER PAY GAP – IT'S QUITE WIDE!

It is a sad fact - but a fact nonetheless - that, on average, women receive far less pay than men earn.

In 2015 the pay gap between men and women was reported as standing at 19.2% due in part to a high proportion of women working part time and thus usually earning less than full time workers.
