

Welcome to our November Ewire

We like to keep you up to date with ideas and information that will help you gain maximum advantage from working with us.

Our Ewires will be sent to you regularly to keep you in touch with the latest legal news.

We hope you will find these bulletins interesting and informative.

We report on corporate partner Liza Zucconi's success in Court, in achieving a legal first in an EU cross-border merger.

Our residential property team, headed by partner Dee Aylward, has put together an all-you-need-to know guide on the London property market, full of information and tips for buyers, while sports-mad trainee Billy Jenks looks at how English sports club might go about bringing EU talent to the UK once Brexit strikes.

We also report on the benefits of Deeds of Variation – the notion of skipping a generation for the purpose of succession planning.

We commend the Institute of Trade Mark Attorneys, which has been granted its royal charter, in recognition of the importance of Intellectual Property professionals to the UK economy.

And finally, in our professional guest article, Vida looks to take on the looming care crisis in the UK, and proposes an invaluable solution to solving the national epidemic.

If you would like further information on any of the issues reported in this Ewire, please contact us.

We operate a responsible email policy at Silverman Sherliker LLP Solicitors, so if you do not wish to receive further copies of our Ewire, please click here to unsubscribe.

In this edition, Liza Zucconi, a partner in our Corporate Commercial department and Italian Desk, reports back on her recent success in completing an inverse cross border merger under the Companies Regulation 2007 – the first of its kind.

In home news, we are proud to announce that following the grant of the royal charter to their professional Institute, our Head of Brands Robert MacGinn and Director of Trade Marks Nigel Parnell are now styled as Chartered Trade Mark Attorneys.

EU-Cross Border Merger: a Legal First

Liza Zucconi, a partner in our Corporate Commercial department and Italian Desk, has just succeeded in completing an inverse cross border merger under the Companies (Cross-Border Mergers) Regulations 2007, the first one to be done in this way.

Inheritance Tax Efficiency: the Use of Deeds of Variation of a Deceased Person's Estate

The notion of skipping a generation through post-death variations has recently enjoyed exposure in the press. The use of Deeds of Variation has been a 'political football' for some time and it should be made very clear that succession planning should not be structured around the assumption that an entitlement under a Will or intestacy can be varied. Solicitor Munazza Hollingsworth, of Silverman Sherliker's Private Client department, explains.

Let's all move to Canada!

Earlier this year trainee solicitor Billy Jenks wrote about how Brexit is likely to make it harder for English sports clubs to bring in EU talent (www.silvermansherliker.co.uk/newswires/16may-sports-law-the-brexit-clause.htm).

But fret not! Our sports-mad colleague may have spotted a way around these potential restrictions....
